Castleton Public Library Public Comment Policy for Board Meetings

The Castleton Public Library values public input and encourages individuals to participate in library board meetings following the guidelines below. The purpose of this policy is to ensure that the community has an opportunity to be heard and that the Board is able to meet its primary responsibility of conducting the business of the library.

Public Comment Procedure

- a. The Director or Library Board President will set out a sign-in sheet at the start of each library board meeting, before the meeting has been called to order.
- b. People who want to speak must print their name and address on the sign-in sheet.
- c. After the meeting has been called to order, additional people who want to speak may continue to add their names to the sign-in sheet.
- d. When the first public comment item in the agenda is reached, people who want to speak will be heard in the order that their names appear. The total time for the first public comment period will be limited to 10 minutes.
- e. Each speaker will have three minutes to comment.
- f. Speakers may not give their comment time to any other speaker in order to extend that individual's time to comment.
- g. When the final public comment item in the agenda is reached, people who want to speak will be heard in the order that their names appear, resuming in the list after the last speaker who commented. The total time for the second public comment period will be limited to 10 minutes, meaning there is a total of 20 minutes available for public comment at the meeting as a whole.
- h. If any speaker on the list does not have a chance to address the board at the meeting, they may submit comments in writing.

Public Comment Guidelines

a. Respectful Conduct: Public comments must be presented in a respectful and civil manner, fostering constructive dialogue and maintaining decorum. Personal attacks, harassment, or disruptive behavior will not be tolerated. Public comments must not use profane language or discriminate based on race, ethnicity, gender, religion, sexual orientation, disability, or any other protected characteristic.

- b. Confidentiality: Public comments must not include personal or confidential information about individuals, unless such information is already publicly available or required by law.
- c. Moderation: The library board chair or designated presiding officer has the authority to enforce this policy during the meeting, including maintaining a respectful environment and asking commenters to finish speaking within time limits.

Castleton Public Library Freedom of Information Law (FOIL) Policy

I. Purpose and Scope

Castleton Public Library will providefurnish to the public the information and records required to be disclosed by the New York State Freedom of Information Law (Article 6, Sections 84-90, of the Public Officers Law), and other applicable laws. FOIL allows members of the public the right to access government records, with certain exceptions.

II. Designation of Records Access Officers

- A. The Library mustshall designate an appropriate employee or employees as "Records Access Officers" for the Castleton Public Library, and mustshall identify the Records Access Officers as such in materials available to the public.
- B. The records access officers must ensure are responsible for ensuring that the Castleton Public Library appropriately responds to public requests for access to Library records.
- C. This does note designation of records access officers shall not be construed to prohibit other Library officials, including those who may have been authorized to make records or information available to the public in the past, from continuing to do so.

III. Requests for Public Access to Library Records

A. All requests for records must be in writing. , Requests can be sent physically or electronically using the following options:

Mailed to the Records Access Officer(s) at the following address:

E-mailed to the Records Access Officer at:

- B. All requests for access to records must include contact information of the requestor, including a telephone number and mailing address.
- C. All requests must include a detailed description of the records that are being asked for, sought including, but not limited to, dates, titles, file designations, or any other information that will help the Castleton Public Library assist the [Your Library Name] in locatelocating the requested records.

IV. Response to Requests for Public Records

Comment [1]: CAn the records access officer receive a request in person? is hand-carried acceptable so long as it's given to the records access officer and they document the time of receipt?

Comment [2]: do we need both?

A. Within five (5) business days after receiving a written request for records, the Castleton Public Library of the receipt of a compliant written request, the [Your Library Name] will do one of the following:

- 1. Provide Make the record available to the requestor.
- 2. ProvideFurnish a written acknowledgement that the request was received, and of the receipt of the request and a statement of the approximate date when the information will be made available.: or
- 3. Deny access in writing, and state the reasonbasis for denying access.
- B. A denial of access to any record will be sent in writing, and will summarize the reason for the denial, and provide information on how to appeal such denial.

C. If the Castleton Public Library does not respond to a request in accordance with Section IV.A, the request will be treated as if it was should be considered to have been denied.

V. Appealing a Denial of Access

- A. All appeals of a denial of a request for a Castleton Public Library record must be submitted in writing within 30 days of the denied request.
- B. The FOIL Appeals Officer shall be the Library Board President.
- C. An appeal must include the date of the original FOIL request, a detailed description of the records that are being asked for, sought-including but not limited to dates, titles, file designations, or any other information that will help the Castleton Public LibraryATPL to find the requested records, and the reason provided for the denial.

 D. The FOIL Appeals Officer will independently review the withheld-records that were not provided and the reason the request was denied. basis for withhelding them. The FOIL Appeals Officer will respond in writing to the person appealing the request, appealing party within ten (10) business days after the appeal was received, is perfected with their his or her determination as to whether the requested records were properly withheld or must be released.

E. Copies of all appeals and the determinations will be sent by the Castleton Public Library to the Committee on Open Government pursuant to Section 89(4)(a) of the Public Officers Law.

VI. Fees

- A. The Castleton Public Library reserves the right to charge the requestor for costs in accordance with law.
- B. There shall be no fee charged for merely inspecting or searching for records.

Comment [3]: I think this is a little confusing because it says that we must deny in writing. I don't know if we should even have an item for failing to respond.

New Business

Feedback from Village of Castleton-on-Hudson: Village of Castleton board member and Library liaison Rebekah Timerman attended to share positive feedback on the library pursuing a construction grant for accessibility renovations for the back door, as well as some concerns after the sustainable funding vote regarding future Sunday hours as well as residents being taxed via Village funding that continues for the library as well as through school taxes. This will be discussed at the next Village board meeting on September 11 at 7pm. Director Tacke and President Mitchum plan to discuss again with Village Trustee Timerman beforehand and Director Tacke will reach out to UHLS Director Tim Burke as well.

Rechartering discussion: The Town of Schodack expressed some interest in discussing what would be needed to make the Village library a Town library.

Long Range Plan Committee Assignments: Trustees volunteered for assignments as follows: Marketing & Community Connections: Knaack, Cartwright; Library Services & Outreach: S. Mitchum, A. Mitchum; Library Space: Johnson, Bielawa, Strainge.

Old Business

Library word-of-mouth advertising: Director Tacke shared that the last day to turn in reading logs to be entered in the prize drawing is August 28. Logs can be turned in starting August 14 and can be turned in after the end of the program even after the drawing. Children can receive a goody bag!

Reports

President's Report

No report.

Secretary's Report

Trustee Cartwright motioned to approve the July 2023 meeting minutes. Seconded by Trustee Strainge. Unanimously approved.

Treasurer's Report

Trustee Cartwright motioned to approve the July 2023 Check Detail Reports. Seconded by Trustee Johnson. Unanimously approved.

Director's Report

Director Tacke presented statistics for July, with a comparison against previous years. Circulation remains similar to 2022 (up significantly from 2021), with continued increase in attendance at in-person events and improved Facebook reach. Many Summer Reading Club programs have been well-attended.

Director Tacke reminded trustees of the dates in September and October for racial equity training.

Friends Report

The Friends of the Library is wrapping up selling tickets for a drawing to be held on August 23 at the Music on the Lawn event at the library.

Village of Castleton Liaison Report

This new item will be added to the agenda each month to ensure time is allotted for report/discussion.

Committee Reports

All committees report plans to meet in late summer or fall.

Finance: did not meet.

Administrative: did not meet.

Operations/Capital Projects: did not meet.

Policy: did not meet; Director Tacke shared policies for review and information from Upper Hudson for recommendations, particularly on intellectual freedom issues.
